Some important quotations to review:

the forward to the novel
the final paragraph (on the page after chapter 12)
"Iron Youth! We are none of us more than twenty years old. But young? Youth? That is long ago. We are old folk" (18).
"Kantorek would say that we stood on the threshold of life. And so it would seem. We had as yet taken no root..." (20).
"My limbs move supplely, I feel my joints strong, I breathe the air deeply. The night lives, I live. I feel a hunger, greater than comes from the belly alone..." (33).
"To me the front is a mysterious whirlpool...To no man does the earth mean so much as to the soldier..." (55).
"The war has ruined us for everything..." (87).
"No soldier outlives a thousand chances. But every soldier believes in Chance and trusts his luck" (101).
"We have become wild beasts...Death is hunting us down" (113).
"The girl on the poster is a wonder to us..." (141).
"I breathe deeply and say over to myself: 'You are at home, you are at home.' But...there is a distance, a veil between us" (160).
"I stand there dumb. As before a judge...Words, Words, Words - they do not reach me..." (173).
"A word of command has made these silent figures our enemies; a word of command might transform them into our friends" (193).
"They are more to me than life...they are more than motherliness and more than fear: they are the strongest, most comforting thing there is anywhere: they are the voices of my comrades" (212).
"I have killed the printer, Gerard Duval. I must be a printer, I think confusedly, be a printer, printer - " (225).
"After all, war is war" (229).
"A man cannot realize that above such shattered bodies there are still human faces in which life goes its daily round. And this is only one hospital..." (263).
"It is as though we were coins of different provinces; and now we are melted down, and all bear the same stamp" (272).
"All is as usual. Only the Militiaman Stanislaus Katczinksky had died" (291).
